IJP Back Issue Availability

The volumes of this journal from Volume 9 (2005 onwards) have all been published by the IJP – the journal of the European Association of Psychotherapy (EAP) – independently of any main publisher.

These later volumes (Vol. 9 - 23), with 3 issues per volume, are mostly all still available as complete bound paper copies (at €15.00 per issue, inc. postage).

You can order them via the IJP website: www.iip.org.uk, or (currently) directly from Tom Ormay, IJP Office, 1072 Budapest, Nagydiófa u. 3. Hungary.
E-mail: tomormay@t-online.hu

All of these back-issues (Vol. 9 - 23) – and all the articles within them – are also available as immediate PDF downloads, via the IJP website: www.iip.org.uk.

Costs are usually €12.00 per issue, or €3.00 per article.

Payment is via Paypal (also accepts credit cards); downloads are automatic.

If you want a particular article or issue which has not been up-loaded yet, please contact:

admin@iip.org.uk

After Spring 2019 (Vol. 23, No. 1.), we switched to a totally different production and distribution system, with a very new look and layout. IJP has become much more of an e-Journal, distributed free-of-charge to all EAP Member Organisations and Individual Members. EAP Member Organisations (mostly National Organisations of Psychotherapy in different countries, European-Wide Organisations representing different modalities, and Accredited Training Organisations) can also distribute copies of the e-Journal to all their members and trainees.

This means that IJP potential readership is now about 120,000.

Hard (printed) copies are distributed to the main National & European-Wide Member Organisations, various subscribing Libraries, and the authors of that issue. Printing & distribution is by Print-on-Demand WorldWide and people can order copies via the IJP Website Catalogue.
